

9th and 10th summer read 2019

Same Kind of Different as Me

By Hall and Moore

Instructor - Mrs. Denise Wyatt - dwyatt@crosspointeprep.org {501-590-3125}

Directions: Answer the following questions (a) in complete sentences, (b) by restating the question in your answer, and (c) on your own paper. Be prepared to turn these in on Tuesday, August 13. Also, be prepared to discuss the novel on that day.

1. (a)At the beginning of the book, what kind of person is Ron Hall? (b)Why does he agree to volunteer at the homeless shelter, and (c)what is his initial reaction in doing so?
2. Discuss the trajectory of Denver Moore's life: (a)What events have landed him in the homeless shelter? (b)Discuss the differences between his life and Ron Hall's. (c)What is Denver's world view?
3. Discuss Deborah Hall: (a)What inspires her life? (b)What does she think of Denver Moore?
4. Eventually, Denver and Ron, two men who have lived vastly different lives, become close friends. (a)What do the two see in one another? (b)What draws them together?
5. (a)What are the symbolic implications of the conversation about how white men fish, especially their catch-and-release method? (b)What does that conversation say about each man, and (c)what is the underlying message that Denver is trying to pass onto Ron?
6. (a)What is the meaning of the book's title, Same Kind of Difference as Me? (b)What does it refer to?
- 7.(a) How do both men change by the end of the book? (b)What do they learn from or teach each other?
8. This is a story about how hate and prejudice can be overcome by love and grace. (a)How difficult is that achievement in most of our lives? (b)What can this book teach us?
9. (a) Does this book inspire you? (b)If so, in what ways? (b)If not, explain.